Along Highway 61, just about half-way between Cleveland & Vicksburg, lies Rolling Fork, birthplace of the father of the Blues, Muddy Waters. In its twentieth year, Rolling Fork's Deep Delta Blues Heritage Festival celebrates the rich history of the South Delta, from its roots in the Blues to the event that led to the invention of the Teddy bear. Downtown Rolling Fork will be alive with the sounds of music and laughter on Saturday, May 4, as the Deep Delta Blues Heritage Festival continues this 21 year tradition with great entertainment, food & shopping.
